Pastor Joost Nixon has been pastor of Christ Church in Spokane, WA, for just over a decade. He and his wife, Kristen, have six sons, and two well-protected daughters. Joost earned his D.Min at Covenant Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, where he focused on faithfulness and apostasy amongst emerging adults. Besides pastoring, Joost is the Executive Producer of St. Anne's Public House and has contributed to various publications, such as Credenda Agenda.

Pastor Duane Garner is the associate pastor of Auburn Avenue Presbyterian Church and the managing editor for Athanasius Press. He is a graduate of Oxford Baptist Institute (Oxford, MS) with a Bachelor of Bible Languages and completed the ministerial course of study at the R L Dabney Center for Theological Studies (Monroe, LA). Duane is the author of "Why the End is Not Near" and has served as editor and contributor for other collections of writings. He and his wife, Sarah, have two children.

James B. Jordan graduated from the University of Georgia, with a degree in Comparative Literature. After a tour in the US Air Force, Mr. Jordan attended Reformed Theological Seminary (Jackson, MS) and Westminster Theological Seminary (Philadelphia, PA), graduating with a TH.M. in Systematic Theology. Mr. Jordan founded Biblical Horizons in 1987, located in Niceville, FL. He is the Director of Biblical Studies at Biblical Theological Seminary in St. Petersburg, Russia. He and his wife, Brenda, have two grown sons, Dale and Douglas. He is author of many books, monographs, and hundreds of short essays.
